Small Business of the Year

In 2002, Tom and Sue Straus purchased a driving range on Broadway in Depew that had been closed for more than a year. Their purchase came with a vision to develop a family entertainment complex and today this previously closed driving range is the place for family fun of all ages.

In 2004, a state of the art miniature golf course was completed to add more options for the family. The course centers around an old barn and has many streams, ponds and a waterfall to make this a fun, yet relaxing atmosphere.

In 2006, Green Acres Ice Cream was opened with a hilltop view overlooking the miniature golf course. Green Acres Ice Cream offers the largest variety of custard, ice cream, Wow Cow, cookies, iced beverages and much more.

In addition to the golf at Broadway Driving Range & Miniature Golf and ice cream at Green Acres Ice Cream, the Strauses also host a free family outdoor movie night and pajama party during the summer months.

In 2011, the Golf Association of America voted Broadway Driving Range one of the Top 100 Driving Ranges in the USA.
